The Second Annual Conference of Clinical Audit and Research in Palestine

"After the great success and positive feedback we received from the participants in the first annual conference, we have organized our "Second Annual Conference on Clinical Audit and Research under the patronage of his Excellency the Health Minister Dr. Jawad Awwad. This one-day conference brought together more than 175 doctors, nurses, physiotherapists, allied health healthcare professionals as well as medical, nursing and other healthcare students, in addition, to policymakers and academics. Our conference was opened in the presence of Dr. Nizam Najeeb the Chairman of the Palestinian Medical Association, Dr. Amal Abu Awad the Director of CME at the MoH and Eng. Adnan Samarah the Chairman of HCIE and other remarkable guests. The conference talks and activities were also remarked on by a wide range of talks and activities run by key national and international experts in the field of designing and conducting clinical audits and research. The founder of IMET2000 Professor Colin Green, Our CEO Dr. Malik Zaben and Dr. Kathryn Peall were among our international guest speakers. Our local keynote speakers were Dr Mutaz Sultan, Dr Niveen Abu Rmleeh, Dr Sima Abu Al-Saud, and Dr Eman Abu Shawish. Twelve abstracts accepted for oral presentations and fourteen abstracts were presented as posters. The day was concluded with a dinner over which participants exchanged feedback, ideas, and initiated networking."

We finished the summer camp with an awesome group of kids

Incorporation between IMET2000-Pal and Rawan Association, a summer camp was held for children with learning difficulties. This 3-week summer camp aimed to help those children to build essential social, communication, cognitive and sensory skills essential for their natural development. It also aimed to prevent the regression that can occur during summer break. Camps provide children with the opportunity to learn, play with peers and interact with the world around them in everyday settings. Children are able to improve their confidence, increase self-esteem and establish important communication skills and friendships that they can carry with them into their adult life.
